Qualification overview and objective

The objective of this qualification is to support learners in becoming emergency first aiders in the workplace. The content of the qualification meets the Health and Safety Executive (HSE) requirements for training emergency first-aiders in those organisations that have identified that staff need to be trained to this level within their first-aid needs assessment.

The qualification covers knowledge such as the roles and responsibilities of the first aider and how to assess an incident. The qualification also covers first aid skills in cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) and use of an automated external defibrillator (AED), providing first aid to a casualty who is choking and dealing with external bleeding and hypovolaemic shock.

In line with guidance provided by the HSE, the qualification supports/approves work place emergency first aiders for a period of 3 years, after which point learners will need to retake the course. In addition to this, it is recommended that learners refresh their knowledge annually.

Entry requirements

We recommend learners are a minimum of 14 years of age. However, Centres will need to assure themselves that learners, whatever their age, are physically capable of completing the practical assessment.

It is also advised that learners have a minimum of Level 1 in English.

Delivery/assessment ratios

To effectively deliver and assess this qualification, centres must not exceed the ratio of 1 tutor or assessor to 12 learners.

Centre requirements

To effectively deliver and assess this qualification, centres must have the following resources in place:

- a minimum of 1 Resuscitation manikin between a maximum of 4 learners
- safety procedures in place for manikin faces e.g. facilities to sterilise the manikin faces at the end of each course OR one disposable face shield per learner OR manikin face wipes to be used after each learner's demonstration
- replacement airways and lungs for each resuscitation manikin to be changed at the end of each course
- a minimum of 1 training defibrillator between a maximum of 4 learners*
- a minimum of 1 disposable training dressing per learner
- a minimum of 1 pair of disposable gloves (not latex) per learner
- a minimum of 1 first aid kit
- training rooms that have carpeted floors or mats/blankets provided, for use during practical sessions
- adequate training and assessment facilities to accommodate maximum number of learners on course
- a training room which is safe, that has adequate ventilation, lighting sufficient for learners to read easily, and temperature suitable to maintain a 'shirt sleeve' environment. It is also required that training rooms are able to cater for people with special needs (where appropriate).

**Where fewer AED trainers are provided, learning hours/lesson plans should be adjusted accordingly to ensure learners are not disadvantaged.*

Guidance on delivery

The total qualification time (TQT) for this qualification is 7 and of this 6 are guided learning hours. This aligns with the Health & Safety Executive (HSE) stipulated minimum contact hours for this qualification, excluding breaks, that should be for a minimum period of 6 hours over 1 day.

The 'Assessment Principles for First Aid Qualifications' also states that this qualification can also be delivered over a maximum of a 3-week period, with the minimum duration of each training session being 2 hours.

Use of blended learning

This qualification may be delivered by blended learning where the following principles are adhered to:

- The time taken to complete the first aid course should not be reduced. There may be a benefit in flexibility but blended learning should not reduce the overall time required to take the course.
- A minimum of two-thirds of the training time should be face-to-face learning
- The practical content of the qualification should be delivered and assessed face-to-face. Distance learning must only cover theory.

Following the distance element of learning, learners' skills and knowledge must be assessed in full during the face-to-face part of the course, in accordance with the qualification specification.

TQT is an estimate of the total number of hours it would take an average learner to achieve and demonstrate the necessary level of attainment to be awarded with a qualification, both under direct supervision (forming guided learning hours) and without supervision (all other time). TQT and GLH values are advisory and assigned to a qualification as guidance. However, contact hours must be met.

Guidance on assessment

Highfield has created assessment paperwork for each element of assessment which are each graded pass/fail:

1] Practical observation

The practical assessment is completed throughout the course delivery. This ongoing assessment requires learners to demonstrate practical first aid skills. The practical assessment will be recorded using the practical matrix within the Assessment Pack.

2] Centre-marked multiple-choice theory assessment

Learners are required to answer a series of questions contained within theory question papers, available to download from the members' area of the website. Oral questioning may be used. In this case, the assessor should document the responses within the assessment pack.

Learners must achieve a pass in each element in order to pass the qualification.

Assessment must be undertaken in controlled conditions. This means:

- books and other training aids must not be accessed by the learners.
- at least one authorised member of staff must be present in the assessment area while the assessment is being carried out.
- learners may complete the theory assessment in more than one sitting however the centre must collect the paperwork and hold it securely until the assessment recommences.

For more information, please refer to the Highfield Qualifications Core Manual.

Sample assessment materials are included within appendix 3 of this qualification specification. A full explanation of how to use the Highfield assessment paperwork is provided in the Tutor, Assessor and Internal Quality Assurance Support Pack, available to download from the Members' Area of the Highfield website.

Centres must take all reasonable steps to avoid any part of the assessment of a learner (including any internal quality assurance and invigilation) being undertaken by any person who has a personal interest in the result of the assessment.

Guidance on quality assurance

Highfield require centres to have in place a robust mechanism for internal quality assurance (IQA). IQA must be completed by an appropriately qualified person and that person must not have been involved in any aspect of the delivery or assessment of the course they are quality assuring.

IQA should monitor both the delivery and assessment of the qualification, including any distance learning, and can involve a number of different methods of monitoring such as observation of course delivery/assessment, sampling of course assessment material, learner interviews.

Once complete, this assessment paperwork and IQA paperwork must be stored by the centre for a minimum period of 3 years to allow for quality assurance checks.

Highfield will support centres by conducting ongoing engagements to ensure and verify the effective and efficient delivery and assessment of the qualification.

Countersigning strategy

While it is a minimum requirement for centres to have the appropriately qualified workforce in place, it is understood that centres may have new personnel who are working towards those requirements. During this period, centres are required to have a robust countersigning strategy in place that supports and validates unqualified assessment/quality assurance decisions, until the point where they meet the requirements as detailed above.

Reasonable adjustments and special considerations

Highfield has measures in place for learners who require additional support. Please refer to Highfield Qualifications' Reasonable Adjustments Policy for further information/guidance.

ID requirements

It is the responsibility of the centre to have systems in place to ensure that the person taking an assessment is indeed the person they are claiming to be. All centres are therefore required to ensure that each learner's identification is checked before they undertake the assessment. Highfield recommends the following as proof of a learner's identity:

- a valid passport (any nationality)
- a signed UK photocard driving licence
- a valid warrant card issued by HM forces or the police
- another photographic ID card, e.g. employee ID card, student ID card, travel card etc.

If a learner is unable to produce any of the forms of photographic identification listed above, a centre may accept another form of identification containing a signature, for example, a credit card. Identification by a third-party representative, such as a line manager, human resources manager or invigilator, will also be accepted.

For more information on learner ID requirements, please refer to Highfield Qualifications' Core Manual.
