

Outline

- This course explains why it is important to have healthy and resilient agricultural soil - how essential this is in respect of sustainability for farmers to ensure good crop yields and farm profitability.
- A well functioning range of soil organisms is essential to process the organic matter content of soils and its structure.
- This course will equip growers and farms with knowledge and skills that are essential to manage their soils for the benefit of their farm's business and the environment.
- Delivery dates: 14th 15th 27th 28th Nov. 24 Cost £1100 plus vat
- Exam online: 2nd 3rd Dec 24 Cost £289
- Booking Form

Topics Covered

- Introduction to soil
- Physical properties of soil
- Chemical properties of soil
- Soil biology & soil life
- Organic matter and the carbon cycle
- Soil management & remediation practices

Full Syllabus